

Distinguished Service Award Nomination Form

Do you know an Indiana Law alum who deserves a Distinguished Service Award?

Indiana University Maurer School of Law is seeking nominations for the 2009 Distinguished Service Awards. Founded in 1997, this award recognizes graduates who have distinguished themselves in service to their communities and to the School. Recipients will be selected in early June and honored at a fall reception in Bloomington.

Eligibility

- The nature of the service rendered by the nominee may include, but is not limited to: exemplifying the spirit of volunteerism, furthering humanitarian causes; rendering pro bono services in nominee's area of expertise; serving with distinction on community-based boards; actively fostering citizenship; or serving his or her community, state, or country in some exceptional and distinctive manner.
- The nominee must have received a degree from the Indiana University Maurer School of Law.
- The nominee must agree to be present at the award ceremony.
- Current officers of the Indiana Law Alumni Board (President, President-Elect, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer) are not eligible for this award.

Guidelines

1. Complete and Submit Nomination Form
2. Submit Nomination Narrative - Please explain how the candidate exemplifies the spirit of the award, including the number of years that a nominee has performed the service, the hours involved, the quality of the service, and the impact on others. Whenever possible, please include any documentation to help demonstrate the candidate's contribution including articles, brochures, letters of support, resume, or other informative documentation.

*Please submit information by Friday, May 15, 2009 to Andrea Havill, Assistant Dean for Alumni Relations; Indiana University Maurer School of Law; 211 South Indiana Avenue; Bloomington, IN 47405; Phone (812) 855-3015; Fax: (812) 856-5039; Email: ahavill@indiana.edu.
