Course taught in person

Course taught online

Indiana University has determined that the spring semester cannot convene in person until February 8, 2021. Accordingly, the Law School's spring semester will begin online on Monday, January 4, 2021, with three sections of a concentrated four-week course in Property. The course will end on Thursday, January 28, with the exam on Tuesday, February 2. Remaining spring semester course information for an 11-week term will be distributed later this summer.

All classes taught in person will be accessible remotely for those who subsequently become unable to attend.

*Legal Research and Writing section meeting times will vary, with all classes meeting for one hour between 12:50-3:10 on Thursdays and 9:50-11:50 on Fridays.
