1b)	If you determine not to mediate or to terminate mediation because of concerns about intimate partner abuse or violence, are there any ethical constraints and/or any safety concerns in how you should communicate this decision to the parties and/or the court? Record these concerns here:
1c)	If you determine not to mediate immediately after completing the first party's MASIC (typically the female), consider whether it would be safe or appropriate to conduct all or part of an intake with the other party, including and especially the MASIC interview with the other party. Again, consider the ethical constraints and/or safety concerns in how you communicate this decision to the parties and/or the court. Record these concerns here:
2)	Are any of the following accommodations necessary in order to help ensure a safe, voluntary, and appropriate mediation process?
	Separation of Parties (check all that are needed):
	Parties to be in separate rooms at all times (shuttle mediation)
	☐ Videoconferencing, telephone, or online mediation with parties in separate rooms or locations (specify details):
	☐ Staggered arrival and departure times for parties (with the victim, or in the case of two victims, the primary victim, arriving second and leaving first):
	☐ Party needs escort to/from car (for which party/ies):
	☐ Party needs way to leave the building without being seen by the other party (for which party/ies):
	☐ Parties to be in separate rooms if mediator not present, i.e., joint sessions possible, but only if the mediator is present at all times in the room with both parties (note that this is not an option encouraged by the authors and should only be considered by mediators experienced in mediating cases with high levels of intimate partner violence or abuse in conjunction with other accommodations listed,e.g., mediation at secure facility)
	☐ Parties to appear for mediation on separate days
	Security:
	☐ Mediation at secure facility, passing through security, presence of armed guards, etc.
	Referrals/Representation/Support (check all that are needed):
	☐ Referral to DV program or shelter (for which party/ies):
	☐ DV advocate (for which party/ies):
	☐ Attorney necessary (for which party/ies):
	☐ Support person necessary (for which party/ies):
	Other:
	☐ Other accommodation (specify):
	No Accommodations:
	☐ No accommodations necessary
	In this situation, the mediator may consider conducting joint mediation (i.e., the parties mediate in the same room with the mediator) for the negotiation process. For some mediators, this is their preferred process. Nevertheless, as a matter of cautious practice, the authors recommend meeting separately with the parties for at least some part of the process before finalizing any mediation agreement, especially if the parties are not represented by legal counsel.

3) Even with screening before the start of negotiations, there may be times when a mediator learns belatedly of intimate partner abuse or violence. If during the mediation, you become concerned about the possibility of intimate partner abuse or violence, take a break to consider how to proceed. Be sure to keep the parties separate while you determine the appropriate action to take.
